Institute Innovation Council (IIC), S.P.I.T organized an Article writing competition on Innovation in honor of the birth anniversary of Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam, as a part of the innovation week, the week of October 15, as a part of the innovation week, the week of October 15, during which various events such as slogan design competition, innovation quiz, article writing and talk on ideation to execution took place. The participants were requested to send articles on Innovation by submitting them through email, from 20th Oct to 27th October 2020.

An overwhelming response was received wherein, 55 participants submitted articles entries on Innovation. All the articles were well written and very creative, presenting many different ideas and thoughts, making the judgement process quite challenging. After a thorough review by experts, one article was selected and the author of the article was presented with a certificate. Also, a few of the best entries were selected and displayed on the social media handles, in order to further encourage the participants. The main objective behind this event was to encourage creativity and nurture persuasive writing skills along with presenting well connected ideas.
